Dear Sir:

Enclosed are the proceedings of the 29th International Affairs Symposium conducted by the Strategic and Area Studies Department of the United States Army John F. Kennedy Special Warfare Center. Such symposia are held twice annually as the culminating exercises of the Center's Foreign Area Officer Courses. Complete background information on these symposia is contained in Appendix A to the enclosed booklet.

The first plenary session was opened by Colonel Charles E. Stokes, Director of the Security Assistance Training Management Office. Colonel Stokes introduced Ambassador Valeriano Ferrao, Ambassador of the Peoples Republic of Mozambique to the United States, whose keynote presentation provided a stimulating beginning. Following the keynote address, five workshops convened to discuss the specific issues outlined by the symposium: Europe and the Soviet Union, Africa, the Middle East, Asia, and Mexico and Central America. The workshops produced some excellent, thought-provoking ideas, conclusions, and recommendations. The proceedings are provided in the belief that it is beneficial to share the fruits of such efforts with individuals and agencies sharing our interests in national security affairs.

I hope these proceedings will be of interest and use to you.

Sincerely,

JAMES A. GUEST
Brigadier General, U.S. Army
Commanding
